

Dear Traveling Fillies & Families,

12/08

Travel update... Continental Airlines now has a flight that will now accommodate us for traveling back to Kingwood on Monday, March 9, 2009!

This is great news for a couple of reasons:

- The fillies will miss less school
- One less night at the hotel

This means the girls now travel for $975 instead of $1137! The new flight information is as follows:

Friday, March 6, 2009: Continental flight # 1086 –
Departing IAH @ 4:00 PM and arriving in Orlando @ 7:20 PM

Monday, March 9, 2009: Continental flight # 187 –
Departing Orlando @ 8:40 AM and arriving IAH @ 10:15 PM.

Below is an approximate estimate of the adult travel expenses at this time with the changes. These estimates do not include admission to the competition. The ground package does include bus transportation, Friday night meal, Disney World Park Hopper Pass and Hotel. The air portion does not include the price of the second bag which will be $25.00. We have included the first bag at the rate of $15.00 and taxes as of today. That is subject to change.
